General Clan Rules:

1. No racism, homophobia, sexism, or hateful behavior in general.
1.1. This may include being overly passive aggressive, or intentionally making other members uncomfortable.
1.2. Avoid bringing up controversial topics or heavy drama in the in-game Clan Chat.
1.3. Whenever The Void Trader arrives with a garbage or a duplicate mod for the 4th time in a row, a collective groan in the Discord general chat is encouraged.
1.4. Any slander against Clem, Kahl-175, or Popcorn will result in immediate public shaming.
1.5. Being passive-aggressive may result in a mute from 10 minutes to 1 day, and severely being racist, homophobic, or sexist may result in a mute from 7-30 days, a kick, or a ban.

2. No spam or self-promotion (server invites, advertisements, etc.) without permission from a staff member. This includes DMing fellow members.

3. No age-restricted or obscene content. This includes text, images, or links featuring nudity, sex, hard violence, or other graphically disturbing content.
3.1. Screensharing sexual or graphically disturbing content is also strictly disallowed.

4. If you see something against the rules or something that makes you feel unsafe, let moderators know by using the @Moderator ping.

5. Do not intentionally spoil content later in the game without warning, or labeling it properly as being a spoiler.

6. You must be active at least once every 14 days on Warframe, otherwise you will be kicked.
6.1. You may not attempt to abuse this system by logging in merely once every 14 days to reserve your spot.
6.2. If you must leave, you can DM a moderator, in which they can give you an exception to stay for longer periods of time.
6.3. Before getting kicked you will be messaged on Discord, and you will not be forced to leave the server.
6.4. This rule may be invoked before 14 days has passed if a moderator has reasonable suspicion that a member will not log back in today, often accompanied with lower engagement in the Discord.
6.5. All members in the Discord must be level 3 with AmariBot within 7 days of joining the Discord, otherwise they might be kicked. Exceptions apply.

7. We must know both your Discord and Warframe username, for cross-platform moderation.
7.1. You may not lie about your username or rank.
7.2. You will have 24 hours to give your Discord or Warframe username after being DMed or PMed by a moderator or administrator.
7.3. If you change your Warframe or Discord username, you must note it to a moderator or administrator.

7.4. You may not impersonate or create lies about any other members. Doing so can result in a multi-day mute, kick, or ban.

8. Every single member of the clan must be inside of the Discord within 48 hours of joining, with mild exceptions.

9. DEPRECATED - Until clan research is fully complete, you are generally expected to make at least some contributions.
9.1. DEPRECATED - Minimum requirements for research conclude to five thousand points within seven days of joining.
9.2. DEPRECATED - Exceptions may be made if the user was unaware of this rule, for reasonable periods of time.
9.3. DEPRECATED - It's disallowed to intentionally contribute large amounts of useless resources to get more than 5 thousands points or to pass certain reward thresholds.
9.4. DEPRECATED - Exceptions may be made if there's nothing to contribute to.

10. You may not spam the clan chat with an unreasonable amount of trade requests, it is recommended you do this in the #trading-post Discord channel.
10.1 An unreasonable amount is specified as more than three trade requests of the same item(s) within a singular minute.

11. You may not intentionally spam inside of Discord channels to gain XP on the Amaribot leaderboard.
11.1. You must say "YIPPE" whenever you perceive someone leveling up. - Mildly optional.
11.2. You are not allowed to intentionally stay inactive inside of voice voice channels to gain XP while idle.

12. Our trade tax must stay strictly at zero.

13. You are not required to speak in the Lotus' Gardens Alliance chat.

14. Poaching is disallowed between allied clans, and may result in a permanent ban from the poached member, and the allied clan that received the member being let go.
14.1. Poaching is defined as a member moving from one clan to another within 14 days of being in their original clan.
14.2. Exceptions may apply to this if this fact was unknown, or the transfer was agreed upon by both parties.
14.3. Exceptions to this may apply in the case of a clan being inactive for a minimum of 45 days.
14.4. If this 45 day minimum has been reached, members from that clan may begin transfer to other clans in the Alliance, if they so please.

15. Allied clans are not allowed to increase their Clan Tier or invite other clans into the Alliance without permission from BMME.

15.1. Allied clans have 72 hours to respond to questions from BMME moderators or administrators before actions may be taken, such as cutting ties.
15.2. Allied clans must provide 100% accurate information about themselves. Failing to do so may result in actions being taken, such as cutting ties.
15.3. BMME must formally evaluate any clans joining their alliance.
15.4. You are not required to get permission from BMME to increase Clan Tier if you are a Shadow Clan, or Ghost Clan.

16. We have a strict policy against unapproved alt accounts.
16.1. You may not use alt accounts to vote in polls twice, or to gain any extra rewards, including giveaways, XP, etc.

17. Members (including staff) are ineligible for participating in their own giveaways. Doing so may result in a kick, or ban.

18. ABSOLUTELY ZERO RMT (REAL MONEY TRADING) FOR IN-GAME ITEMS. Doing so will result in an instant permanent ban.

19. Members are almost always able to appeal a ban.
19.1. Ban appeals are done by opening a ticket in the Discord, and choosing the Kick/Ban Appeals panel.
19.2. Ban appeals are not able to be granted if the member is entirely banned from using the Discord.

20. Members are allowed 3 warnings before escalations may happen.
20.1. Escalation may include getting kicked, perma-muted, or banned.
20.2. Warnings may be removed if previous warnings have become irrelevant.
20.3. If previous warnings have become irrelevant, then you may be allowed more than 3 warnings.

21. Moderators have the final say in ambiguous situations.

22. The use of moderation tools for personal gain is strictly disallowed.
22.1. This excludes very minor cases.

23. Moderators should handle disputes without any bias on any side.
23.1. A moderator can always ping another moderator to handle the case if they feel like they can not decide in an unbiased manner.

24. Moderators have a responsibility to at minimum remove any sexually explicit text or imagery and overly hateful behavior in general upon perception.

25. Members are allowed to record or stream clan-wide events.
25.1. Live streaming in public VCs is disallowed unless properly disclosed or implied.

26. Members are allowed to use the clan's name and tag on their social medias or anywhere they wish, but the clan's emblem, alliance's emblem, clan's banner, or alliance's banner may not be used outside of gameplay, may not be shared publicly as-is, and may not be replicated in any manner for use outside of the clan without proper permission. (This is to respect the artists!)

27. You have to speak about muted people as if they passed away. (very necessary)

28. Art in the #art-showcase channel must generally be credited with a link, or username attached, granted that the link or username would not lead to excessive amounts of sexual or shocking content.

29. Moderators will do their best to keep reporters' usernames private from the people being reported, and to avoid passing them around unnecessarily.
29.1. This is a best-effort courtesy, not a guarantee. Your name may be shared if you give permission, if the situation can't be properly handled without it, or if a report turns out to be made in bad faith. Reports made honestly will never be penalized, even if they turn out to be mistaken. Other exceptions may apply.

30. Graphic imagery of suicide or self-harm is explicitly banned, including "jokes" surrounding the topic.
30.1. This includes things such as gifs, emojis, stickers, links, videos, or images. Please be considerate of others, and the fact that some may be triggered by this.
30.2. You should not "joke" about committing suicide, or doing self harm.

31. False reports with explicit ill intent are, in fact, bannable.
31.1. This excludes reports intended to bring awareness, or show worries. If you are simply creating a report to show your concern, and you are not reporting someone in bad faith, you will not face repercussions. We want to hear all feedback from all members.
31.2. Intentionally creating support tickets for no purpose outside of to waste moderators' time is bannable.

32. If possible, a Senior Moderator should always be the one personally messaging members when an issue arises.
32.1. Personal messages may be sent by a Senior Moderator to notify a member about repercussions for actions they have done, or to request members to change their server-specific name, profile picture, or bio to remove bannable material.

33. Trainee Moderators may lose their role due to inactivity.
33.1. If a Trainee Moderator has been found to be inactive, then their role may be taken away to prevent leaks or role abuse.
33.2. This is also meant to prevent potential issues with moderators getting hacked.

34. All major moderation choices must be documented in private moderator channels in a way that makes them easily accessible.

35. Moderator abuse can be reported by personally messaging __v33__ on Discord. He will make sure everything gets sorted.
35.1. Explicitly avoid reporting moderator abuse in ticket channels, as it may be monitored by the very person whose abusing!

36. We take making fun of mentally disabled people very seriously. We do not condone the use of derogatory language or slurs towards disabled people in the slightest.
36.1. If you proceed to hate on someone for their intellectual disabilities inside of meme channels, or any other channels, you will be met with harsh punishments.

It’s generally recommended to have the replay mod recording, or to be screen recording, to make sure you have proof of someone breaking the rules.

1. No racism, homophobia, sexually suggestive texts, sexism, or hateful behavior in general.
2. No cheating in any way, shape, or form.
3. No major griefing or stealing.
4. Don’t intentionally lag the server or other players.
5. No PvP unless agreed upon by both players, or implied.
6. Don’t play on the server unless you have all the required mods installed!

Contributions may be calculated on a points system if needed for moderation purposes or judgement purposes. Below, you can see the value of each item listed. Additional judgement may be made with the distribution of resources. Keep in mind, these numbers should not be relevant to you or important in any way, unless you fall into a category in which you may be under active moderation.

General Alliance Rules:

1. No harassment or bullying in any way, shape, or form.
2. No racism, sexism, homophobia, or any hateful behavior towards any group.
3. No threats, doxxing, or sharing anyone's personal information without their consent.
4. No drama in Alliance chat, please take it elsewhere.
5. No NSFW, sexually explicit content, gore, or shock content.
6. Political and religious arguments must be kept outside of Alliance chat.
7. No spam, unsolicited advertisement, scams, or illegal content in chat.
8. Don't impersonate other members.

Specified Alliance Rules:

1. No harassment or bullying in any way, shape, or form.
1.1. This may include being overly passive aggressive, or intentionally making other members uncomfortable.

2. No racism, sexism, homophobia, or any hateful behavior towards any group.
2.1. This rule is applied regardless of the stature of the group receiving this hate.
2.2. "It's not as bad when it's towards [x]" is not an excuse, everybody should feel comfortable.

3. No threats, doxxing, or sharing anyone's personal information without their consent.
3.1. Personal information includes anything a person may be uncomfortable having shared without explicit consent.
3.2. "Consent" to information being shared may or may not be subject to context, though the person whose information may or may not have been leaked should be contacted for final say.
3.3. This rule includes personal messages between Alliance members, if found out.

4. No drama in Alliance chat, please keep it elsewhere.
4.1. In this case, drama is mostly referring to arguments. Active arguments in Alliance chat may make certain members uncomfortable.

5. No NSFW, sexually explicit content, gore, or shock content.
5.1. This includes pornography, soft-porn, links to sexual websites, usernames of artists whose content primarily consist of pornography, and links or imagery showcasing death, suicide, or self-harm.

6. Political and religious arguments must be kept outside of Alliance chat.
6.1. We encourage members to speak their minds, though religious and political arguments inside of Alliance chat may make people uncomfortable, and understandably so.
6.2. We don't care if you hold these debates in a civil manner elsewhere, but not in Alliance chat.

7. No spam, unsolicited advertisement, scams, or illegal content in chat.

7.1. This includes server invites, advertisements, etc. without permission from a staff member. This includes DMing fellow Alliance members.

8. Don’t impersonate other members.
8.1. This is regardless of intention, with minor exceptions for harmless jokes which did not carry over ill intent.

9. Staff have the final say on interpreting these rules.
